

8 GREAT REASONS TO ADOPT NOW

COMMIT THE PERFECT RANDOM ACT

"No matter what the circumstances of the adoption, no matter how disparate the physical similarities, no matter how arbitrary the timing, most adoptive parents are certain that they are with the right child: This was meant to be!" says adoptive mom and author Jana Wolff

THROUGH CHILD WELFARE AGENCIES, SOME ADOPTIONS COST LITTLE OR NOTHING.

It's unselfish

You're choosing to love a child—not for biology's sake, but because you want to ferry a child to soccer practice and help him master math, or, in short, be a parent.

SHARE YOUR LOVE

Giving your heart to a child is joyful and rewarding, and there are plenty of kids—millions in the U.S. and around the world—who need families.

It's Every-where!

Research shows that more than 90% of Americans support adoption, and that 64% report a personal connection to adoption.

NO PASSPORT REQUIRED

International adoptions make the news, but the annual number of infants adopted domestically (excluding foster and relative adoption) is estimated to be between 25,000 and 30,000—higher than the number of all international adoptions combined.

$10,960

The maximum tax credit the federal government now gives per adoption.

THE BEST REASON OF ALL

In the words of humorist Garrison Keillor, "Nothing you do for a child is ever wasted."
